Hello! We hope that you are well! As we draw closer to the Thanksgiving season we do truly have so much to be thankful for, despite the many global circumstances around the globe. We are thankful that the Lord holds everything in His hands and using all of this for His purpose.

We have learned that Covid has hit our friends and churches in Siberia quite hard. Several are in the hospital. But how amazing to hear their request, " Pray I have the opportunity to share the Gospel during this time!" Some of our workers overseas have gotten sick but thankfully, they have recovered and doing well.

It's been a tremendous season of making connections. The Lord has blessed this time for our ministry to connect with our workers via online means which has kept them encouraged and connected. What a blessing! We are thankful that many are able to continue their works, translations and move ahead with relationships despite the circumstances. We do currently have about 40 people waiting to depart for various fields! We are just waiting for borders to open and consulates and embassies to open to grant visas. Please pray for wisdom and patience during this time of waiting.

Despite the waiting, it has given us opportunities to visit our workers's fellowships, deepen our relationships, and make connections that we normally just don't have time to do. Greg was able to speak in different places in Michigan along with one of the believers from Siberia, and Rick Davis of Engage Global (engageglobal.net). We have more domestic trips planned in the coming days to meet with future workers and their church leaders. Recently, GSI hosted a pastor's luncheon for local churches in the community. Its been a privilege to partner and work with churches and committing with each other to the task of the Great Commission!

We've had the privilege of leading a young man to the Lord and helping to mentor Him in his growth in the Lord. He has been through a lot, including the sudden loss of his mother just after coming to faith. He is now enrolled to begin Seminary at Columbia where we met! We had the privilege of spending time with him up there in South Carolina and it was fun to be back where we first met.

ministry! We are thankful for continued growth and we are praying as global doors open, that there will be a great Harvest in these people groups!

Thank you so much for all of your prayers and partnership with us and the

The Lord bless you during this season of Thanksgiving and thank you so much!
