

We praise God for you, for your prayer, your encouraging notes and your investment in what God has asked us to do here at the Graduate Institute of Applied Linguistics and what it is doing to train people to witness around the world. We praise God that we can be a part of the Scripture Engagement movement worldwide. SE is "encountering God's Word in life changing ways."

Praise God for the opportunity for 450 missionaries and church leaders from all over the world to attend EMDC conference in Holland this month on the uses of all kinds electronic media and arts in distributing translations and communicating the Gospel in the different languages and cultures around the world. Wayne will be one of several representing GIAL. He will be giving 6 presentations. Pray for good communication and learning in table conversations with missionaries from many different ministries. Pray that GIAL board, with Wayne as a representative, will have success in making creative solutions to the challenges to bringing in new students to strengthen the vitality of the school.

Praise God as the Dye family works together for a great celebration on May 27 of our 60th wedding anniversary, my 80th birthday, and the 50th anniversary of Bahinemo's first convert. Pray that Jamey's book on our Bahinemo ministry will be finished and available. Praise God that our health and energy has improved.
