

Dear Praying Friends,

A huge expression of my THANKS for your prayers and financial support. Recently, I've reading a book of short devotions called --Names of God. Its divided into three sections.Names of God, attributes of God, and promises of God. We truly serve a great God.I have found this book giving me much yo ponder.

My health for now is ok. I will see my pulmonary Doctor in March. He will do a pulminary function test and chest xray to reevaluate my condition.

My sister and I took a Great vacation. We did ziplining,saw the Soo locks and Mackinaw island. The whole trip was AWESOME!. I'm so glad God sent his angels to help us when we needed them. I'm still keeping busy with aqua flex at the ymca three mornings a week. I'm involved in a community group, and a once a month women to women ministry. I also attend a young at heart(yah's) once a month. Its a nondenominal fellowshipwith music and a luncheon.

Notes from overseas are of utmost intrest to me. As we pray we have a part in the gospel going forth. The Bagwido New Testament is right now being printed. Both the Waxe and Dom New Testaments will soon be ready to be printed. In Mexico,in the Nahuati, missionaries are hard at work on translation and teaching a class of sixteen to read and write their own languare. Pray for these tribal locations. God desires that ALL hear the Gospel.

I continue to covet your earnest prayers.

In His Service,

Cheryl Euler
