

FAITH IN FOCUS

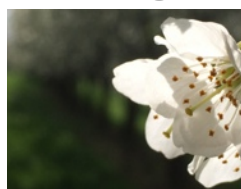

Last Minute London Trip

In March many of the Advanced Placement students go on a weekend field trip to London to see some of the things they have studied first-hand. Due to a last minute cancellation I was asked to join them as an additional chaperone. We enjoyed three days packed full of activities including tours of Parliament and Westminster and visits to six museums. It was a wonderful and unexpected opportunity to get to know many of the Junior and Senior students!

Settling In...finally.

After a few months of feeling very much like the new kid in school, I'm thankful that the Lord has helped me build good relationships with my coworkers.

BFA is a school always in transition so we will have a new crop of staff arriving in August. Please pray for them as they are preparing to come and serve. Having recently experienced the big transition of moving to Germany, I have an extra measure of sympathy for our new staff and the challenges they will face as they get settled here in a few months.

Spring Break with Zoe

Just a week after my very educational trip to London I flew over again during our spring break from school. I spent a week with my dear friend Tiffany from college. Tiffany and her husband, Tim, have recently become the proud parents of a precious little girl named Zoe. I had a wonderful time hanging out with Tiff and Tim and, of course, spending lots of time getting to know their sweet new baby girl. During my years in Southeast Asia I missed the births of several close friends' children so it was an extra special blessing to be able to meet Zoe in her first month of life. A big thanks to Tiff and Tim for inviting me to stay with them!

Summer Plans

The school year is rushing to a close here in Kandern. In just five short weeks my students will be taking their final exams and summer break will begin. Thank you to those of you who have been praying about my housing situation. This summer my friend Dayla, who teaches in the music department, will be moving into my apartment after my current roommate moves home. I'm encouraged at how the Lord has worked out my housing situation for next school year. I'm also expecting some very special visitors this summer. Two close friends from college will be flying over to visit me in July. Needless to say, I'm thrilled that they are able to come and can't wait for them to arrive!

Prayer Requests

- The next month will be a very busy time as the school year wraps up. Please pray that the Lord will enable me to finish the semester well.
- I'm still on the lookout for a used vehicle. Please pray that the Lord will provide the finances to purchase a reliable car.
- I'd love to spend more time studying German over the summer. Please pray that the Lord would guide me to a class or an individual who can help me in the learning process.
