

We Made It...

After 5 planes and countless hours aboard said planes, we finally arrived in the US about three weeks ago now. Though we have received several warnings that the country we left nearly 4 years ago is not the country we'll be coming home to. While that may be true, we were comforted that our family and friends that we left in 2011 are the same ones we came home to...welcoming us with warm hugs and kind words. Being home just under three weeks, we've already put nearly 1000 miles on our vehicle.

4:00 am wake up call

We made it!

It's not all work and no play though. Four days after being home Levi was able to take Michael turkey hunting and Michael was able to take his first turkey! Both Daniel and Matthew also had the opportunity to go hunting with Levi as well. Though they didn't get anything, they enjoyed seeing and watching the different wildlife that they don't get to see in Papua New Guinea.

Due Date...

We are currently in Missouri visiting my, Levi's, family. Robyn will be flying back to Michigan in just over a week so that she can be closer to the doctor and continue with her appointment regimen. An ultrasound last week showed that baby Krystiana is healthy and big. Her birthday has been scheduled for July 23, via C-section. Please continue to pray for both Robyn and Krystiana for the upcoming flight and through the next 7 weeks.

Thank you for your love and prayers. We look forward to catching up with you all during our time here in the States.
