

Greetings this New Year's Day 2013

---

God gave me a couple of verses to start the year off with and I would like to share them with you. Jerry liked them too when I shared them with him this morning. Are you ready?

Psalm 16: 8, 11 (NAS)

“I have set the LORD continually before me;
Because He is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.
Thou wilt make known to me the path of life;
In Thy presence is fullness of joy;
In Thy right hand there are pleasures forever.”

This past year had its up hill climbs and some deep in the valley experiences but God was there all the time. This New Year is yet another chapter in our lives and full of choices. My prayer is to be faithful to my Lord and choose His path and not my own. I want to keep Him set continually before me just like David. But when I blow it there is peace knowing He forgives and we can continue to walk hand in hand. It is a great comfort to know that whatever comes my way He wants to be there with me and for me so that I won't be shaken. How blessed it is to know Jesus Christ as Savior and be part of God's family.

Love and prayers,
Jerry and Sue Pettus
