January 2014

Wow!!! What an amazingly, awesome God, who loves us and knows what is best for each of His children. I'd written a poem and THOT in one of my old Bibles back in March, 1976, from Daily Bread.

"He took control and whispered low
His will for me each day;
My longing heart is satisfied-
Content to live His way."

THOT- " You can be content if God's will is more important than your wants."

We are thankful to announce Sue's Canadian Resident card has arrived and we are able to return to Paraguay, flying out of Toronto on January 22. It will be a bitter-sweet time, as good-byes are never easy. It is a blessing in many ways that mission leadership and our home church have recommended we go back for a shorter time than we had planned.

During this time in Canada our co-workers have done a great job covering for us. We will go back for seven weeks to wrap up our ministry there. Jerry will be able to help with some of the annual things that take place in the first quarter of the year.

God answered our prayers last year in directing us to our house we are buying in Port Stanley, which is a short walk to Jerry's mother's place. It has become "HOME" and that will help emotionally as we retire after nearly 30 years of serving in Paraguay.

Your faithful prayers for us have always been appreciated. They will be a continued blessing as you hold us up before our Heavenly Father. We seek to finish well in Paraguay, and return March 12. Starting a new chapter in our lives in Canada will have many adjustments, so your prayers will continue to be a blessing. Thank you from our hearts for your prayers and support. Our God is able! "But my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus." Philippians 4:19. God delights in us and He will supply all we need, including emotional, spiritual, physical and financial. We are blessed to be part of His family. We are blessed to have you be part of our lives. Thank you and God's riches blessings for you.

Love and prayers,

Jerry and Sue
