Hey there church family,

Just a little update just in case I didn't get to catch up with you this last week. I was home for a week for VBS, and to spend some time with my family! What an amazing week it was, and boy did I miss my family more than I thought! Well I am just about wrapping up my summer; we start leadership training in little over a week, which Ashton and Rachel will also be joining me. Then classes will start up at the end of the month, starting my junior semester along with Ashton. This summer has flown by and there is so much to share, but I'll leave you with this: please be praying for us students at NTBI that our minds will be challenged and our hearts softened. I am so excited to get back into classes!!
