

The Gift of Hope

Everyone enjoys receiving gifts. The Merriam-Webster dictionary defines the word gift as, something voluntarily transferred by one person to another without compensation. This holiday season, Rescue Mission guests will receive Christmas gifts from generous individuals and families who will “voluntarily transfer” the gift of hope.

Their hope comes from knowing caring neighbors like you are concerned about their circumstance. It is the desire of the Mission staff, board and volunteers that individuals and families seeking emergency shelter would not only receive a gift they can feel or touch, but will receive the gift of Jesus’ love. Jesus truly is the greatest gift of all....He is the Gift of Hope.

As we approach the end of 2012, we say thank for your thoughtfulness and prayers for the homeless.
