

Many are giving their lives rather than deny the Christ of Calvary. It is so challenging to read about what our brothers and sisters in the Lord are going through these days. We would recommend reading Killing Christians by Tom Doyle. It is so humbling to realize how little we sacrifice, how easy we have it. May the Lord challenge us to give our all, to take up our cross and follow him. Pray for those who will be challenged to sacrifice the comforts of home to fully follow Jesus.

It is so easy to become focused on politics in this election year in the United States and totally ignore the Lord's priority. Of how much more value are the souls of people than electing the right politician. Pray the Lord of the harvest to send forth laborers into this great harvest. At least 2500 people groups have had no opportunity to hear about Jesus.
