June 21, 2022 - Summer Officially Arrives

Dear Friends at Immanuel Bible,

In First Thessalonians Paul writes: "You are witnesses, and God also, how holy and righteous and blameless was our conduct toward you believers. For you know how, like a father with his children, we exhorted each one of you and encouraged you and charged you to walk in a manner worthy of God..."

In the weeks of summer camp I frequently pray: "Lord help each of us who serve here to be holy, righteous, and blameless in our conduct. And help each of us to be like godly parents to these children."

During our two weeks of summer staff training one of our guest speakers said to the staff "Always choose godly character over charisma, and integrity over ingenuity." This same pastor is also a father to some summer campers, so this is personally important for him. Please join him, and us, in praying that we will all walk in a manner worthy of God who has called us into his kingdom and glory.

Summer camp is thriving, and every day feels very rich with purpose. I wish I could send along a little sample of the Chapel singing, or a picture of children sitting on a quilt in the woods in the dew of the day, learning their memory verses. It's a full and wonderful season of Bible proclamation.

Yours for Christ-exalting summer camping,

Paul Gardner
