NOTICE IDENTIFYING A MINIMUM BASIC OPERATION WORKER

April 10, 2020

Safe Passage Letter: Notice identifying a critical infrastructure worker.

To whom it may concern,

_____, is providing minimum basic operations for Immanuel Bible Church, a house of worship.

From Office of the Governor, Lansing MI : Executive Order : 2020-42

The following sections apply as indicated below.

Section 13.

“Nothing in this order should be taken to supersede another executive order or directive that is in effect, except to the extent this order imposes more stringent limitations on in-person work, activities, and interactions. Consistent with prior 10 guidance, a place of religious worship, when used for religious worship, is not subject to penalty under section 17 of this order.”

Also under section 4.b.

No person or entity shall operate a business or conduct operations that require workers to leave their homes or places of residence except to the extent that those workers are necessary to sustain or protect life or to conduct minimum basic operations.

“For purposes of this order, workers who are necessary to conduct minimum basic operations are those whose in-person presence is strictly necessary to allow the business or operation to maintain the value of inventory and equipment, care for animals, ensure security, process transactions (including payroll and employee benefits), or facilitate the ability of other workers to work remotely. 3 Businesses and operations must determine which of their workers are necessary to conduct minimum basic operations and inform such workers of that designation. Businesses and operations must make such designations in writing, whether by electronic message, public website, or other appropriate means. Workers need not carry copies of their designations when they leave the home or place of residence for work. Any in-person work necessary to conduct minimum basic operations must be performed consistently with the social distancing practices and other mitigation measures described in section 10 of this order.”

Respectfully,

Dr. Mark Hazen

Executive Pastor, Immanuel Bible Church

Stephen J DeLong

Elder, Immanuel Bible Church
